VIRGINIA:-At Rules held in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Alexandria County, on the 7th day of March, 1859, W. Arthur Taylor, Trustee, plaintiff, against Reuben Johnston, J. D. Corse, and M. D. Corse, and Edward Snowden, late copartners under the name of Corse, Snowden & Corse, Hopkins & Hall, Duer, Norris & Co., William A. Dean & Co., and Lewis and Drost, defendants—in Chancery. The object of this suit is to enable the plaintiff, who is trustee under a certain deed of trust from Reuben Johnston and wife, to administer said trust under the direction of the Court, to ascertain who are the creditors entitled to participate in the distribution of the trust fund, the amount of the respective claims, and for a settlement of the account of said trustee, and distribution of the assets, in his hands, among the parties entitled thereto. The defendants, Hopkins & Hull, Duer, Norris & Co., William A. Dean & Co., Lewis & Drost, and Edward Snowden, not having entered their appearance and given security according to the act of Assembly and the rules of this Court, and it appearing by affidavit that they are not residents of this State, it is ordered, that the said defendants appear here within one month after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interest in this suit; and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a by newspaper published in the city of Alexandria once a week for four successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court house of this County.
